

money management

Evolve Housing runs regular programs to help residents learn life management skills.

Money Management Workshop

If you're struggling to pay down your credit card debt, find it tough to stretch your income to cover all expenses, want to buy a car or plan for a holiday, these workshops will help you manage your money. These money management workshops will help you create a budget, reduce your debt, start saving, manage your credit cards, understand superannuation and much more.

Did you know?

- The average household debt in Australia is around $168,600.
- 15% of Australian households are in financial stress.

Workshop outline

- Workshop modules are under 2 hours each and are free for Evolve residents
- Run in various locations, close to public transport
- You are given a free workbook to continue tracking your money after the workshops end.

What you'll learn

- How to create a budget that fits your lifestyle and how to manage it
- How to start a savings plan and tips to stick to it
- How to reduce credit card debt and more.

Note: Evolve Housing does not provide financial advice and does not make any recommendations regarding any financial instrument. These workshops are to guide you in understanding your money. If you then require individual financial advice, Evolve Housing can direct you to agencies that can provide this support. Any information provided at these workshops are general in nature and do not take into account your personal situation.
